EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL FOR STUDENTS

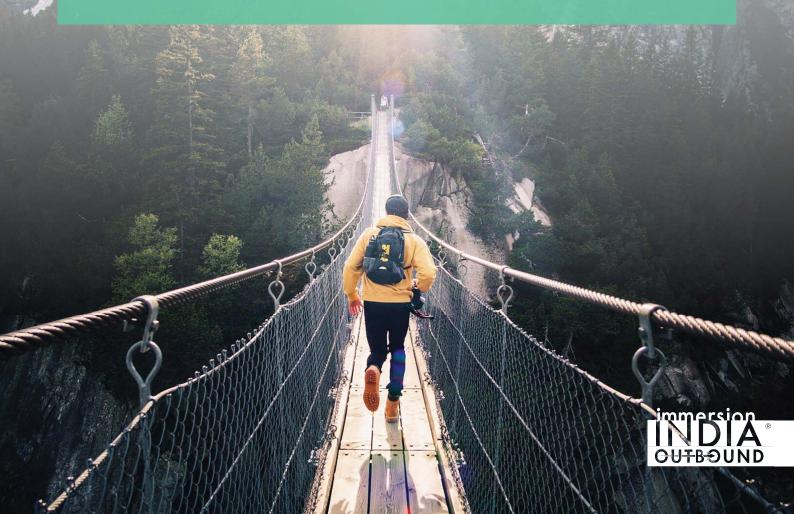

GLOBAL CITIZEN

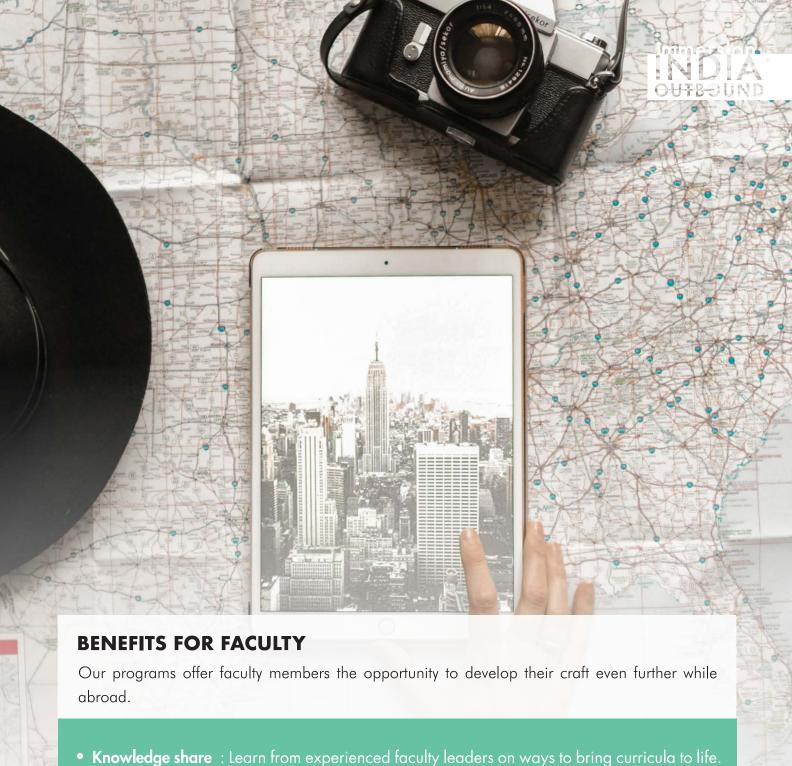

Education is about finding a path to a life fulfilled. And when you combine that with travel, even just 10 to 14 days' worth, it can be a pillar for lifelong academic, personal, and professional growth.

That's why short-term, faculty-led study abroad is more than important and a focus area for us. We also believe that study abroad should be accessible, actionable, and life-changing for all.

BENEFITS OF STUDY ABROAD FOR STUDENTS

- Majority of students felt their global experiences were valuable to their overall education.
- Majority of students felt more prepared for the workforce after studying abroad.
- Majority of employers are looking for the skills students develop studying abroad.
- Majority of those who studied abroad secured a job within the first year after graduation, as opposed to 49% of those who did not.

- Knowledge share . Learn from experienced facolly leaders on ways to bring corricold to life.
- Connect with educators: Network with like-minded educators from your institution and around the world before, during, and even after your short-term study abroad program.
- Bring outside voices in : Cultivate organic learning moments on your campus, inspired by your time abroad.

BENEFITS FOR SCHOOLS/COLLEGES

- Offer additional academic experiences thereby strengthening the curriculum
- Better positioning among peer colleges/schools

INDIA®

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM FORMATS

Designed in collaboration with international educators, our programs include a variety of meaningful experiences like cultural engagement, guided learning, and independent exploration.

We offer five types of global education programs to choose from:

- Discipline-focused programs are centered on course integration, subject-specific experiences, and cultural immersion through the lens of your field of study.
- Intercultural-focused programs emphasize cultural exploration and weave in a wide range of learning moments, bringing your travels and curriculum full circle.
- Service Learning programs focus on community-driven service learning projects and hands-on exposure to local cultures.
- Skill Development programs foster essential skills and leadership building through relevant content and hands-on experiences.
- Custom-designed programs give you the ability to design a program with us to meet your specific vision.

OUR EXPERIENCE

EXPERTISE

Our focus is exclusively on short-term, faculty-led study abroad. That means we really dive into the nuances of accessible, flexible travel experiences. It also means we're focused entirely on your program's unique needs.

EDUCATION FIRST

Our programs are designed by academic researchers who have taught both undergraduate and graduate levels and led by cultural experts specializing in every region. Plus, our pre- and post-program assessment tools, professional development opportunities, and educational and logistical network set us apart.

RECOGNITION

WHY TRAVEL WITH US

Our committed expert team that plans every trip goes into every minute details to ensure the students feels good at the place of stay, or where they eat or even getting around smoothly. We also look at the aspect of how you interact with locals and live like them. We ensure the students have an educational experience of a lifetime in all our trips.

- Central Hotels or Accommodation at University Campus: We ensure that your accommodation is at centrally located 3 star hotels or at University provided housing accommodation. This will ensure you save time commuting and everything you want to explore.
- Fastest Travel: We ensure you spend the maximum time in the city or town instead of idling on a coach. We put you on the fastest trains, comfortable coaches and even include local flight tickets to travel from one city to another.
- Experience: We have been providing student mobility and travel learning experience programs for the last 10 years. We were also recognized recently by UNWTO as a Global SDG startup in the category of Quality Education.
- Certification: We ensure students who attend experiential learning program with us get certificate from host universities which is globally recognised. In select cases the credits you earn can be transferred for higher education as well.
